

Oberlin College & Conservatory

Title: Acceptable Use Policy (202 )

Responsible Position: Director of Information Technology Services

desk, campus network, administrative systems, web servers and general computers and facilities, and institutionally owned desktop and laptop computers.

CIT also provides audiovisual and educational technology support and resources.

The facilities of CIT are that designated members of the CIT staff may examine accounts or files of users to investigate security problems, possible abuse of the Oberlin College computing system, or violations of regulations.

5. Account Usage

- a. Account holders should use only their own personal accounts unless given permission by an authorized member of the faculty, administration, or professional staff to use one that is designated for a specific purpose or job. Account holders may not allow others to use their personal accounts. The person holding an account is responsible for its use, and all activity originating from that account, at all times.
- b. Account holders should choose strong passwords, protect their passwords and keep them confidential. Passwords should be changed frequently. Action resulting from irresponsible use of a password (e.g., a password that can be easily guessed or oral or written dissemination of a password) may be treated as grounds for action against the account holder. Any attempt to determine the passwords of other users is strictly prohibited.
- c.

