

STUDE

of iconography and religious persons. Directing, 888v88, c

...urging, assisting, conspiring, hiring, or being necessary to any prohibited
...ful conduct will be considered a violation of this Policy.

Construction of Property

- Damaging, attempted damage, or participating in the damaging of property belonging to or in the care of the University, member of the University community, or campus visitor is prohibited.
- Acts of vandalism on- and off-campus will be considered a violation of this Policy.
- Damage that is considered accidental must be promptly reported to Public Safety or Housing and Residential Life if the damage occurs in residential facilities. Failure to report significant accidental damage in a timely manner will be considered a violation of this Policy.

In addition, guidelines exist for those living in campus housing. Please review the Residential Facilities Policies on our Other Policies page for more information.

Discrimination

to the Office of Equity and Diversity, who may work in conjunction with Student Conduct for resolution.

Please visit _____

- Issuing b d ch ck or p ym nt to th Univ rsity.
- Providing f ls inform tion or apply if conditions remain during medical emergency. Student conduct has the final determination on the application of RDAP to any Policy violation.

Drexel University must comply with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act. Accordingly, all drugs that are illegal under federal law, including medical marijuana, are not permitted on campus.

Failure to Comply

Failure to comply with any reasonable request or appropriate directive from University officials, or with any disciplinary conditions imposed by an authorized University official or group, is prohibited.

Violations of any University Policy, rule, or regulation published in hard copy or electronically available on the University's website is a violation of this Policy.

- Failure to identify oneself or cooperate with campus staff personnel, representatives of facilities staff, or other University officials is also considered to be a violation of this Policy.
- Additionally, Students must comply with public authorities acting in performance of their duties.
- Failure to comply with all COVID-19 protocols around health and safety, including, but not limited to, those listed on the Drexel coronavirus site and the Dragon Page. As it relates to COVID-19 protocols, the University will address all alleged misconduct on a case-by-case basis. To be clear, students who are not compliant with vaccination or mandatory testing requirements will be considered in violation of this Policy. Students who have been provided vaccination exemption are required to participate in mandatory testing.

Fire Safety

High-occupancy buildings such as residential halls, classroom buildings, and laboratories carry high fire risk. High circumstances or exposure to the elements;

4. Endurance brutality of mental nature, including activity adversely affecting the mental health or dignity of the individual, sleep deprivation, exclusion from social contact or conduct that could result in extrajudicial harassment;
5. Endurance brutality of sexual nature;
6. Endurance of any other activity that creates a reasonable likelihood of bodily injury to the Student.

Aggravated Hazing: A person commits the offense of Aggravated Hazing if the person commits a violation of Hazing that results in serious bodily injury or death to the Student; and

1. The person acts with recklessness indifferent to the health and safety of the Student; or
2. The person causes, coerces, or forces the consumption of an alcoholic liquid or Drug by the Student.

Organizational Hazing: An organization commits the offense of Organizational Hazing if the organization intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly promotes or facilitates a violation of Hazing or Aggravated Hazing.

In compliance with state law, as described above, Delta University will consider any action taken or situation created as part of initiating, promoting, fostering, or confirming any form of affiliation in Student organization that meets any of the following criteria to be a violation of this policy:

1. Violates city, state, or federal laws.
2. Violates any code of conduct policy.
3. Humiliates and/or degrades an individual or group.

3. Humiliating or degrading an individual or group.

4. Endangering an individual or group mentally, physically, or emotionally.

The observation of Hazing activities by individuals or groups in a position to intervene but who fail to intervene, or failing to report acts of Hazing, will be considered violations of the Hazing Policy. Aiding or assisting another Student to engage in any Hazing activity is prohibited.

Retaliation in any manner against any individual who reports hazing or who participates in an investigation of hazing or report is prohibited.

The University's Hazing Policy covers a range of hazing behaviors. The following actions and situations are examples of prohibited behaviors that may constitute hazing. Do not consider any of the following behaviors under the definitions of Hazing provided by The Timothy J. Pizzuti Anti-Hazing Law (see below). This list is not exhaustive.

Psychological Hazing

1. Activities or behaviors that create power differentials and unhealthy dynamics between new/prospective members and existing members

2. Deception

3. Interference with academic pursuits

4. Nomenclature

5. Line-ups and/or berthing

6. Personal servitude

7. Sexual simulations

8. Threats or implied threats

Physical

Students and Student organizations should familiarize themselves with the Responsible Dragon Act with imminent threat to their health (mental or physical), safety, or personal property is prohibited under this Policy.

Engaging in conduct, including any gesture; written, verbal, or physical act; or any electronic communication (which includes emails, text messages, and Internet postings on websites or other social media) that is severe or pervasive and that it could reasonably be understood to substantially disrupt or interfere with the rights of Student or any other member of the University community will result in disciplinary action.

Law and Policy Compliance

Violations of any federal, state, and city laws and ordinances are considered to be a violation of this Policy.

Students have an ongoing obligation to notify the University of any conviction, plea of no contest, acceptance of responsibility, or acceptance of sanctions for criminal or civil infraction (other than minor traffic offenses) in local (city or township), state, or federal court if the underlying behavior impacts the University community, regardless of location, within thirty (30) calendar days of the occurrence of the conviction.

Documented documentation should be submitted electronically to studentconduct@drexel.edu.

Failure to meet financial obligations with respect to University funds, or conducting any financial transaction with the University unlawfully or unethically, is prohibited.

Littering

Disposing of waste of any kind in or near any building owned or operated by Drexel, except in receptacles provided for that purpose, is prohibited. Additionally, overturning receptacles used for trash or recycling will be considered a violation of or remaining in place or causing a fire or other safety hazard will be considered a violation of this Policy.

Pets/Animals

Generally, students are not allowed to bring any pet/animal, regardless of ownership, into any University-owned or -operated building, or chain animal outside any University-owned building.

All animals that are brought on campus must be kept on leash at all times while on campus. Animals that are not brought on campus must be securely contained at all times while on campus.

All actions of, or damage caused by, any animal will be the responsibility of the owner and/or the guardian at the time of the incident.

For information about service or assistance animals, please refer to the University's Service and Assistance Animal Policy (ED-5) on the Office of Equality and Diversity's Policy page.

Failure to comply with the Service and Assistance Animal Policy (ED-5) guidelines may be a violation of this Policy.

Posting

Flyers and posters may only be hung throughout the campus on approved posting locations. All materials for posting must be submitted for approval prior to distribution. Posting approval for the University, including the residence halls, is mandated by Student Life located in Rush Building and the Residence Student Handbook (ED-5) ii

Adv. Inc. in its order proceedings should not be held to promote or endorse advertising of tobacco products, or Drug use. Any materials that constitute unlawful obscenity or prohibited, including violations of state

[REDACTED] University prohibits any member of the community from retaliating against any person for raising good faith concerns about student behavior that may violate the code of conduct. Retaliation is defined as any adversarial action taken against a person in response to that person's participation in the conduct process including, but not limited to, the following:

retaliation by faculty or staff should be directed to the faculty or staff member's supervisor or human resources.

Sexual Harassment and Misconduct (OED-3)

The University is committed to providing an environment free from discrimination, including discrimination based on sex and/or gender. Sexual harassment and sexual misconduct are considered forms of sex discrimination. The University will not tolerate any form of sexual harassment or sexual misconduct, including, but not limited to, sexual assault, sexual violence, sexual abuse, stalking, intimate partner violence, and other forms of non-consensual sexual conduct.

The University encourages any individual who has been affected by sexual harassment or misconduct to immediately report the incident(s) giving rise to such concerns.

Students should visit the incident reporting page for information on how to report to OED.

Students are required to review and understand the film premises and using University facilities for academic purposes only. It can be used without proper authorization from University officials.

Theft

The most simplistic definition of theft is "unlawful taking." Drake University expects Students to respect the property or services of others at all times. Violations of the University's Theft Policy include, but are not limited to:

- Taking, attempting to take, or assist in the taking of money, property, services, identity, or any item of value for which they do not have rightful possession.
- Using property or services without proper authorization or permission.
- Knowingly

when p is not near π or 0

Students who wish to know more about safety resources on Dr. x l's campus should visit the Department of Public Safety's website.

Wheeled Transportation

This Policy was created to promote safety

Contact Us

Student Conduct

Rush Bui t

opyright © 2022 Dr x I Univ rsity.
All rights r s rv d. Privacy & Legal