

TU suspended student without hearing, failed to present evidence to accused

Trey Barnett was suspended last semester for Facebook 9 February 2015 posts written by someone else. He was never provided with a hearing. Editor-in-Chief Kyle Walker and Managing Editor Conor Fellin report.

Late last October, the University of Tulsa suspended George "Trey" Barnett on harassment charges. The case centered on three Facebook posts which either tagged Barnett or were posted to his page by another account.

Christopher Mangum, now Barnett's husband but at the time his fiance, claims in two sworn affidavits that he wrote the posts. Mangum has never attended TU and has been barred from campus.

Documents obtained by the Collegian show that Barnett never received a hearing, even though the Student Code of Conduct provides that "in all cases, a student accused of one or more violations of the student code has the right to a hearing that cases a student accused of one or more violations of the student code has the right to a hearing t

Barnett has been suspended until at least 2016. He will not be allowed to graduate from TU with a degree in theatre, a degree which he was eleven credit hours from completing. Barnett was to graduate in December. He told the Collegian that his tuition had been paid in fulp

```
۱r
                 After the suspentision, Bh n l
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Vc
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             Vac Xanī Ù
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          iÙ ˚ С
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 q o rq
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Hof Happ Tr'H non H
                                                                                                                                        ΥĿ
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      fYthe f a Hold Tivi Yihlon
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               on Website of the distribution of the distribu
                                      oŁ ii b
                                                                                                                                                                                          dh
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                an fl°
                                                                                                                                                                                  St (n gasac Vd San Yomrastcnup oaHYpn Ysun§igat С gΗ
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            e a t xinmlXn∕
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      n esoE‴n WeW
      ex
                                                                                                                                enY l eseT
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               nam/n V pY
```

q

413414237 Vj g'Eqmgi kcp

In two of the

413414237 Vj g'Eqmgi kcp

The appeal also rargues that aBarnett cannot be held accountable for the conduct of a third-party adult," that "the unive t