

is penalized by the change. Res

VII T h a h aP i d e g f eS i c i a i G i e
M k P c i e i c g e

As constituents within the University community, students shall possess the freedom and the channels for expressing their opinions on matters of University policy. The faculty and administration must bear final responsibility for the implementation and maintenance of degree requirements, course grades, and general academic standards.

A. Representation on University Committees: In all cases where it is capable of being ex ecte

