

UCF-4.0293 Use of University Grounds by the Campus Community; Campus Demonstrations and Outdoor Events

(1) Except as limited by this or related regulations or as limited by applicable laws or University policies, outdoor areas of the University campus may be used for demonstrations and other exercises of free speech and assembly. Such use must not interfere with the conduct of classes or other University activities or otherwise be disruptive, and such use must not infringe on the rights of others. No person or organization may use University facilities or grounds for unlawful purposes or in a manner that violates the law. All definitions and general requirements for use of University buildings and outdoor areas of campus set forth in University Regulations UCF-4.029, UCF-4.0292, and UCF-4.0294 apply to uses of outdoor areas of the University campus under this Regulation.

(2) It is the policy and practice of the University to limit use of University buildings, other indoor facilities, and restricted-access outdoor areas by non-University organizations and persons. The rationale for this policy and practice is that the University, while it supports and encourages the exposure of its students and employees to a diverse and varied marketplace of ideas, is dedicated first and foremost to University's mission and to the State of Florida's directive to educate its students and engage in research and other scholarly activities.

(3) No campus buildings, other indoor facilities, or athletic or recreational facilities may be used by anyone for demonstrations, assemblies, events, or other functions unless specifically permitted in writing by the campus authority specifically responsible for the building or facility sought to be used. Certain University facilities may be available for rent, in which case the user will be required to enter into a facility use agreement or other formal arrangements with the University. The University reserves the right to charge fees on a differential basis depending on a number of factors, including but not limited to: nature of the use, size of expected crowd, presence of potentially hazardous items or activities, whether the user is directly associated with the University, whether the user is also an educational or governmental entity, and whether additional security or utilities will be required. See also University Regulation UCF-4.0294.

(4) University and University-related organizations and persons may organize, conduct, or participate in demonstrations and other exercises of free speech and assembly on the University campus grounds, except for non-common outdoor areas. Non-university organizations and persons may conduct spontaneous expressive activities, and other exercises of free speech and assembly, on outdoor areas of the University campus that are otherwise accessible to the campus community for common use, but must abide by the reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions set forth in this and related University regulations (see also University Regulations UCF-4.029, 4.0292, and 4.0294), including that such use be lawful and non-disruptive. A person making use of the outdoor areas of the University's campus for expressive activities does not have the right to limit access to those outdoor areas or to conduct commercial activities in conjunction with the person's expressive activities.

(5) Non-university organizations and persons may use University indoor facilities for events if specifically sponsored by a University organization or a University-related organization. Such sponsorship requires the University organization or University-related organization to serve as a sponsor and to be a participant in the event of the non-University organization or persons, including being physically present throughout the event.

(6) All organizations and persons that engage in expressive activities in outdoor areas of the University campus, or otherwise conduct activities or events in University facilities, must abide by the general requirement that no such uses may interfere with, disrupt, or impede the normal operations of the University or otherwise interfere with or infringe on the rights of others. In order

- (f) use fighting words, which are those words that by their mere utterance inflict violence or would tend to incite a reasonable person to violence or other breach of the peace;
- (g)

(7) The University does not permit the use of amplified sound, including use of bullhorns, as part of expressive activities conducted in outdoor areas of the University campus or in University facilities, except as approved in advance by the official responsible for the particular grounds or facility being used or as set forth in this paragraph. Where amplified sound is permitted, it is permitted at limits specified in this paragraph or as specified by the official or by the procedures for the particular facility in question. Absent specific instructions provided by University officials, the approved use of amplified sound may not exceed a limit of 70 decibels. Even where use of amplified sound is pre-approved, the University reserves the right to impose different volume restri

(c) enlist the assistance of outside law enforcement agencies, if necessary.

(10) In the event of disruptive action, University employees and students involved in the demonstration, event, assembly or activity shall identify themselves by presenting appropriate documents such as ID cards when requested to do so by the police or by the President or his/her designated representative. When requesting that persons identify themselves, the University representative making the request will identify him/herself verbally. Disrupters not officially related to the University will be directed to leave the campus immediately or be subject to arrest for a violation of the law forbidding the disruption or interference with the administration or functions of an educational institution.

(13) If the proposed use of University campus grounds or any other University facility qualifies as a potentially hazardous event, as defined in Regulation UCF-4.0292, the user must provide the information and documents identified in that regulation to allow for University review of the event. Please note that it is the responsibility of the event organization to submit forms and information for potentially hazardous events sufficiently in advance of the proposed event to allow for University review and for appropriate plans to be made to make the event secure. See Regulation UCF-4.0292 for more information about potentially hazardous events.

(14) Campus demonstrations or organized activities that will take the form of or involve a parade or a march and during which the participants will use or cross lanes of vehicular or pedestrian traffic must follow the requirements of University Regulation UCF-4.0292, "Potentially Hazardous Events."
