CRIMINAL TRESPASS WARNING

You are being served notice that you are trespassing on private property and the owners of such property request that you not return for a period not to exceed one (1) year. This will serve as your only notice.

Further violations of this official notice may result in a criminal citation or arrest. The issuance of this notice is directed as such under the Georgia Criminal Code 16-7-21.

PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS

REMARKS

While working the front desk of Alpharetta City Hall at 2 Park Plz I was alerted by two different individuals that there was a w/m panhandling and yelling at people outside. I contacted the male and asked him to leave and advised him panhandling was not allowed in Alpharetta. The male left but returned approx. 5 min later. I was told again by another citizen that there was a male yelling at people and asking for money. I again contacted the w/m and requested his identification and he refused and pulled out two kids letters from his hoodie pocket. He then showed me ID but covered it and refused to give it to me. I asked him to have a seat until this issue was resolved and he refused. HE became increasingly frustrated, so he was detain in handcuffs without incident until another officer arrived. He was identified as Jeffrey Gray from his FL driver's license. Gray stated he asked no one for money and wanted to only speak about homeless veterans. Gray was offered a ride and was asked if he needed any help and he refused both offers. Gray agreed to leave and was issued a
