

Re ul

students, faculty, and staff, and the protection of University property and the property of its students and personnel as provided below

1. Any individual, group or organization

- 3 This regulation only addresses the destruction of printed materials on campus as described above. For example, this regulation does not address the posting of printed material on bulletin boards, walls, trees, or any other portion of campus. The University's Signage Regulation (7-0100R) is controlling regarding the posting of printed material.
- 4 Any individual, group, or organization engaged in the destruction of printed material in violation of this rule will be prevented from continuing such destruction if necessary to protect the uninterrupted orderly operation of the University, the safety of the University students and personnel, and the property of the University and its students and personnel.

, 1. .