

Meeting With Mr. Thomas Thibeault
October 27, 2009

This is a summary of the meeting between Mr. Thomas Thibeault and Dr. Tim Goodman in reference to his return to active faculty status.

Comments from Dr. Goodman:

1. Mr. Thibeault is expected to act in a professional manner at all times when dealing with students, EGC employees, and the public. *See EGC Employee Handbook (see below)
2. Even though Mr. Thibeault has a lack of confidence in the administration, he must understand that he must work with that administration and within the administrative structure that is in place.
3. Even though the situation will be uncomfortable for all persons involved, Dr. Goodman will have the experience of the students
4. Mr. Thibeault will work with Mr. Dallas to get a schedule forward the schedule to Dr. Goodman for the file
5. Mr. Thibeault will talk with Dr. Brown to get an update on the status of the QED process and Mr. Thibeault's potential assignments for the QED
6. Even though Mr. Thibeault has made a request for a specific 2010 teaching assignment, Dr. Palumbo will determine Mr. Thibeault's 2010 teaching schedule. Dr. Palumbo will copy Dr. Goodman when the teaching assignment is determined.

Tim Goodman, Vice President for Academic Affairs

DATE

Thomas Thibeault, Lecturer

EGC Employee Handbook 6.11 Disruptive Behavior

"While supporting freedom of expression and dissent, the college's primary concern is the orderly operation and preservation of an environment favorable to productive study, has adopted a policy prohibiting disruptive behavior on the part of any student, faculty member, administrator, or employee:

In addition to following the published rules and regulations, the following accepted customs and standards of courtesy, conduct, and cooperation be maintained.

The following are examples of actions that can result in disciplinary action: